CLEANUP is more than a word to the Cub Scouts of Orinda Pack 52. Here are two members of Den 2 cleaning up the vacant lots next to Black's Market in the Crossroads business district. They are Bill Thurlow (left) and Fred Morris.

Sidewalk Setback Near Crossroads OK, Allen Reports—If County Foots Bill

Those sidewalks on Moraga Highway, in front of Orinda Hardware and Sprouse-Reitz Company, will be set back five or six feet — if the county will foot the bill.

That information was disclosed by Stanley Allen to Orindans at last week's "town meeting" sponsored by the Orinda Association.

Both Don Rheem and Arthur Breed have agreed to let their sidewalks be set back five or six feet if the county will bear the cost, Allen told the audience at Orinda Grammar School auditorium Thursday night of last week.

The gathering, at which President Marvin Bonds of the Association presided, served as the "kickoff" rally for the Orinda Association's membership drive.

WILLING TO DEED

If the county will pave the land and construct the curbs, Rheem and Breed are willing to deed the land to the county, Allen said.

Following the meeting, President Bonds stated that this development was highly significant, inasmuch as the Orinda Association had been working toward such a project for about a year, in an effort to alleviate the parking jam along Moraga Highway.

Last July, after a conference with Orinda Association and Orinda Chamber of Commerce officials, Supervisor Jack Cummings, now chairman of the Board of Supervisors, stated: "It's not the policy of the county to build curbs and sidewalks, but we've never had a case like this before, with such pressing traffic problems along a county road, so I think we're obligated to do it."

PARKING DISTRICT?

Mention by Allen that there had been some consideration of the possibility of setting up a parking district authority evoked a few hoots from the audience.

In discussion which followed, William Penn Mott, Jr., observed that such steps as cutting back sidewalks, while providing some relief from parking problems were only temporary expedients, and that a five-year or 10-year plan would be advisable for the obtaining of permanent off-street parking, either through action by merchants in purchasing property for that purpose or through establishment of a parking authority in the area.

P.G.&E. 'AGREEABLE'

Also directly linked to future alleviation of the Moraga Highway traffic jam near the Crossroads was the report by Bonds at the meeting that Pacific Gas and Electric Company was "agreeable" to further discussion on possible use of its land for a one-block street connecting Camino Encinas and Golden Gate Road.

However, Bonds stated that P.G. & E. was as yet unwilling to commit itself because of the question of liability in case the high-tension wires over the area fell and caused injury.

If constructed, the new street, behind Sprouse-Reitz and Orinda Hardware, would enable motorists to circle back toward the Crossroads without having to make a U-turn on Moraga Highway.

Bonds stated that the association would take the liability problem up with the county, so that the district attorney could render an opinion on it.

The association president also brought up the question of paving of the strip, P.G.&E., owner of the property, states it will not pave it, Bonds said, and the question is: Can the county pave it if P.G.&E. lets the community use its property for street purposes?

Good Dance But Still Need Funds For Bus Shelter

Last Friday night's community dance at the new postoffice building, sponsored by the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, was hailed this week as "an outstanding success" from a social standpoint.

The crowd danced to catchy rhythms of music, enjoyed special entertainment and partook of coffee and doughnuts.

FOR BUS SHELTER

Proceeds from the affair were earmarked for a bus commuters' shelter planned for the Crossroads. "From a social standpoint the Chamber of Commerce dance was an outstanding success—in fact, one of the best of the year," a chamber statement declared.

DISAPPOINTMENT

"From a financial standpoint the $150 profit was a great disappointment."

"What is the answer? Thirty-four hundred tickets were mailed to Orinda residents. Approximately 150 persons mailed advance donations and about 150 paid at the door. One might think that, therefore, only about 10 per cent of Orinda residents are interested in building a bus waiting depot at the Crossroads."

"This, however, is not true."

WANTED BY MANY

"Many, many residents have wanted such a campaign started for years."

"The party is over—it was a success—now let's get the job done."

"Mail your check for $1 or $2 or $5 to the Orinda Chamber of Commerce, P.O. Box 95, Orinda."

Voters to Decide On Fire Bonds at Tuesday Election

Voters in the Orinda Fire Protection District will decide next Tuesday whether $130,000 in bonds should be issued to enable the district board to go ahead with its planned program of expansion.

Polling places will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. The question on the ballot will be:

"Shall Orinda County Fire Protection District incur a bonded indebtedness in the principal amount of $130,000 for the object and purpose of acquiring, constructing and completing structures, and acquiring real and personal property, needful for district purposes, including 2 fire houses for said District fully equipped with engines and all other necessary fire fighting facilities, equipment and apparatus?"

POLLING PLACES

Three consolidated special election precincts are established by the resolution. These three precincts and their polling places are:

Special Election Precinct No. A (comprising General Election precincts 1, 2, 3, 4 and 7); polling place, fire house, Avenida de Orinda.

Special Election Precinct No. B (comprising General Election precincts 6 and 8); polling place, Hall residence, 72 Davis Road.

Special Election Precinct No. C (comprising General Election precincts 5 and 9); polling place, Mrs. Ramona S. Smith's home, 4 Valley View Drive.

ELECTION OFFICERS

Election officers will be: Precinct A—Inspector, Mrs. Amy Macomber; judge, Mrs. Helen Smith; clerks, Mrs. Gladys Holmes, Mrs. Vera Watkins.

Precinct B—Inspector, Mrs. Elizabeth Radford; judge, Mrs. Louise Batty; clerks, Mrs. Dorothy D. Hall, Mrs. Anne Leighton.

Precinct C—Inspector, Mrs. Ramona S. Smith; judge, Mrs. Myrtle R. Earle; clerks, Mrs. Pauline Rechente, Mrs. Ruth Pimental.

The Orinda fire commissioners plan to use $75,000 of the $130,000 if the bond issue passes, for construction and equipping of a second fire house at Orchard Road and Moraga Highway and for purchase of a site in the Sleepy Hollow area.

The remaining $55,000 would be held in reserve for eventual construction and equipping of a third fire house at the Sleepy Hollow site.

Be a Fire-Fighter on Tuesday--Vote 'Yes'!

(An Editorial)

Fire, like disease, respects no person and is not kept away by the neat, attractive appearance of your home.

If you allow it a moment's leeway, it will wipe out your home or business and transform the fruits of your hard-earned labor into wisps of charred ashes.

With fire stalks tragedy—death, destruction, havoc.

All this is well-known, and it is not repeated here for the sake of providing you with a "thriller" blurb. We are stating these facts soberly, because we must be reminded from time to time.

Next Tuesday the voters of the Orinda Fire Protection District will go to the polls and decide whether $130,000 in bonds should be issued.

Sale of $75,000 of these bonds will enable the district to build and equip a second fire house at Moraga Highway and Orchard Road and to purchase a Sleepy Hollow site for a third fire house. Later sale of the remaining $55,000 in bonds will make possible another fire house on the Sleepy Hollow site.

These facts have all been publicized during the past few months, as has the fact that these expansions in fire protection will definitely result in sizable reductions in fire insurance rates.

Organizations which have endorsed the proposed fire bond issue include Orinda Association's Board of Directors, Orinda Chamber of Commerce, Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee, Orinda Taxpayers Association, Moraga Meadows Association, Moraga Woodlands Association, Sleepy Hollow Improvement Association, Minorinda Association and Moraga Del Rey Association.

The SUN joins these organizations and the Board of Fire Commissioners in urging you to vote "YES" on the proposed $130,000 bond issue next Tuesday—for the sake of your community, your homes, your families.

MEMBERSHIP would be a magic word in Orinda these days except for the fact that there's no magic connected with it — not, at any rate, for the Orinda Association, which is conducting its whirlwind membership drive. These two pictures are just a couple of scenes showing drive activities. At top, at last week's community meeting which served as the "kickoff" for the drive, Orinda as an evacuation center in case of disaster is being discussed by (left to right) Kirk Miles, Brigadier General Bradford G. Chynoweth, retired; President Marvin Bonds of the association and Mrs. Helen Vurek, general chairman of the drive. They are studying a map depicting possible "clover-leaf" approaches to the Crossroads, as suggested by Clarence Fleager. Chynoweth, the featured speaker at the rally, was formerly civilian defense director for Alameda County, and talked on civilian defense and disaster relief. Below, Mrs. Roy Stuart (seated at left) is paying $2 for her family's 1951 membership in the Orinda Association, while Mrs. C. B. Chantler (at right), association secretary-treasurer, prepares to enter her name on the organization's roster. Also waiting to join are the other three women — left to right, Mrs. Wayne Littlejohn, Mrs. Kenneth Brown and Mrs. Dan Peacock. — SUN photos by Mattson

Sewer Board Votes 3 to 2 to Annex New Territory, After Policy Debate

After a pro and con discussion by directors of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, the board recently approved by a 3 to 2 vote annexation of a 79.4-acre area near Soldiers Monument to the district. Addition of Units 1 and 2 of Sherman Acres, the land in question, followed argument by directors over advisability of taking in any more large subdivisions.

The unexpectedly rapid population growth, future expansion necessary for the sewage treatment plant and amount of money which would be required when the need arises were involved in the discussion of future annexation policies, with Sherman Acres the point in case.

Sherman Acres developments were accepted on basis of a $250 per acre service charge or a total of $18,850. Provision was made that the home builders must also pay other incidental costs and install their own sewers.

Board Chairman Elliott Johnson expressed disapproval of action of the Sherman Acres developers, who had already installed a lot of sewer pipe in Unit No. 2 and covered it before district inspection. Col. H. M. Smitten, other member of the two-vote minority, also said he didn't like it.

Directors Wadsworth and Toland argued that the Sanitary District could not remain "stagnant" during the residential boom, that it has to serve people who need sewer service and that annexation of heavily built-up residential sections adds to the district's assessed valuation for tax purposes. They reiterated that annexation helps rather than hurts the present district residents, as annexations pay their own way.

Director William Malott agreed with Johnson in principle in considering future large annexations more carefully, but cast the deciding vote for Sherman Acres admission on grounds the board had "committed" itself in previous agreements to "consider" the annexation on a $250 per acre basis.

RAPID GROWTH

Johnson pointed out that population growth in the district had already far exceeded the initial estimates and "advanced by several years the date when enlargement of the treatment plant will become necessary."

Both he and Col. Smitten agreed that the "district should take care of its own people first before taking in too many outsiders" in pointing up the observation that "5,000 acres of land in Moraga area, alone, are being opened up for new home building."

Expert Stresses Orinda as Center For Evacuation

In case of major disaster in the Bay Area, the Orinda area's main role would be that of evacuation center for thousands of refugees from the Oakland-Berkeley-Piedmont area, according to Brigadier General Bradford G. Chynoweth, retired.

Chynoweth, featured speaker at last week's community meeting at Orinda Grammar School auditorium, told an audience of over 100 that while Orinda would probably not be a primary target in war, it should be prepared to take care of persons fleeing from other areas.

DANGER OF FIRE

Another danger foreseen by the man who until recently was civilian defense director for Alameda County was that of fire.

One of the reasons why London survived the Nazi blitzes of World War II, he stated, was that wartime civilian fire-fighting organization was about 20 times the size of normal peacetime operation.

People must be trained in all phases of civilian defense, Chynoweth stressed. Although he did not refer specifically to the organizational setup in this county, he said that in general things were going too slowly. He warned against a false sense of security regarding the international situation.

40,000 AUTOS!

Even before official steps would be taken to evacuate people from other areas, many persons would start heading for this section, the speaker predicted. In a very short time 40,000 automobiles would jam the roads, bound for this side of the tunnel, he estimated.

Referring to the often-expressed desire to have a civilian head civilian defense and to the antipathy toward the "military mind" in such problems, Chynoweth emphasized that civilian defense and disaster relief in wartime would be a military situation.

ORGANIZING PROBLEM

One of the main problems in civilian defense, Chynoweth declared, is getting it organized to the point where each person knows exactly what to do.

Chynoweth resigned his post as Alameda County's civilian defense director because he felt there was too much "politics" in the setup.

While speaking on the need for adequate emergency fire protection, Chynoweth recalled that two Philippine towns, in both of which he was in charge of civilian defense during the early stages of World War II, were burned down.

Later he was taken prisoner by the Japanese, and was a prisoner of war for three and a half years.

Stoffel Renamed To Planning Body For 4-Year Term

John L. Stoffel starts his second term as a member of the County Planning Commission next week.

The Board of Supervisors last week reappointed Stoffel for a four-year term on recommendation of Board Chairman Jack Cummings.

Stoffel was first named to the Planning Commission January 10, 1949, to fill the unexpired term of William Penn Mott, Jr., who had resigned.

Bill Seroy left Tuesday for a 10-day business trip to Los Angeles and Arizona.

Miehle Doesn't Feel Talkative

We'd like to say something bright and chipper, like "Well, folks, here we are, back in our accustomed six-column format, and Miehe's O.K."

But what's restraining our enthusiasm is... you've guessed it! Miehe.

The experts have fixed up Miehe, our press, with new parts, and they've been testing him all week. Everything seemed O.K., so, after three successive eight-column issues printed on the CONCORD TRANSCRIPTS press, we decided to return to our old, familiar costume.

Just keep your fingers crossed, as we're doing (with our fingers, of course).

And what does Miehe say? In the best tradition of embarrassed persons in the limelight in this county, Miehe merely says, somewhat grumpily: "No comment."

Dons Wind Up Season Monday vs. Bulldogs

The Acalanes Dons varsity football team winds up its 1950 season next Monday night when it meets up with the Alhambra Bulldogs.

The game is set for 7:30, under the lights of the Martinez field. The game was postponed early in the season due to wet grounds.

OUT FOR A WIN

The Dons are out for a win, following their victorious game against Crockett.

Alhambra boasts a veteran eleven, however, and may well prove to be a tough nut to crack.

Indications are that both teams will be at full strength. Each of the two elevens will be determined to make this final outing a winning one.

TOUGH LINE

The Martinez backers claim a tough line and some top-notch backfield men led by Bud Dodge, a hard-driving fullback with 195 pounds to back him up.

Reports indicate that Dodge gave Pittsburg some bad moments last week despite a 20-0 loss to the league-leading Pirates.

WATCH JACK BUSH!

Jack Bush is another hard runner and a fine passer, who operates from any backfield spot up to and including quarterback.

Don Jordan and Warren Sargent are rated as two of the league's better guards.

All in all, it looks as if the Dons will have their hands full.

At press time it appears that Roger Linn and John Daniels will start at the flanks, with Bob Borghesani and John Bowron at the tackles.

Bob Stewart and Buzz Williams top the guards, with Gary DeAngelis holding down the pivot spot.

BACKFIELD

In the backfield Al Culp appears to be the favorite at left half, with Bob Wikenback at right half and Eddy Grueb in the fullback slot.

Ken Green appears ready to go at the signal-calling position.

Of the starters, Bob Stewart,

Gary DeAngelis and Bob Wikenback are the only seniors. All others will return next year.

Diablo meets John Swett on Monday.

Pittsburg and Antioch were hard at one another yesterday, with the winner to walk off with the Contra Costa League crown. Game time was too late to get results into today's paper.

Rose Bowl Picture Cleared by Cal's Whopping Defeat of U.C.L.A. 'Cousins'

By COACH ERWIN MATTSON

THE PAST WEEK found the Rose Bowl picture cleared when the Blue and Gold Thunderbolt played one of those games that a coach dreams about and as a result made a good team look bad, namely U.C.L.A.

A wag was heard to remark that after all what could you expect since U.C.L.A. was a cousin. As a matter of record, however, the Southern lads were cousins that were coming a-feuding, with one eye cocked toward the Rose Bowl themselves.

Cal hit the year's high, however, and could do no wrong. Downfield blocking was at a peak, tackling terrific, backs ran hard and the forward wall wouldn't be denied. Final score, as you know, was 35-0.

As Coach Lynn Waldorf commented, they will be lucky to reach such a peak again this year.

BASKETBALL got under way last Monday at Acalanes when coaches Lee Arth and Gerald Brown called their candidates to opening practices.

Don J.V.'s Defeat John Swett, 13-0

The Acalanes J.V. racked up John Swett of Crockett at the Sugar City gridiron Thursday afternoon of last week.

Registering two touchdowns and a conversion in the first half, the Dons were content to coast the second half for a 13-0 win.

THE T.D. KIDS

Lynn Nebeker and Howard Andrews were the touchdown kids, while Bob Westlund did the signal calling.

Ray Williamson, frosh flash, tossed a 40 yard pass to Eddy Hunt, who was out in the open and away only to have the slipper pigskin drop through outstretched hands.

DOUBLE HEADER

The win, combined with the varsity's victory, gave the Dons a double header as far as the win column was concerned.

At press time yesterday the Don J.V.'s were scheduled to meet Alhambra's Junior Varsity, but rainy weather predictions made it appear that the game might be cancelled, giving the Dons three wins as against four losses for the season's play.

Here's Ol' Soss With Lowdown on Weekend Games

By COACH ERWIN MATTSON

The 1950 gridiron season rolls on, and in many ways it has been one of the most interesting in many a moon.

Upsets create interest, and as a result interest has been high. Talk now concerns Bowl games and national ratings.

CAL NEAR TOP

Cal goes nearer the top as a result of its smashing of what appeared to be a threatening U.C.L.A.

Here are Prof. Soss Opple's predictions for this weekend:

Cal meets U.S.F. tomorrow, with little to gain and much to lose. The Rose Bowl is settled but prestige nationally is at stake.

It's Cal to win—but don't expect them to be at last week's peak.

SPORTS

Don Gridders Trounce Crockett 27-13

The Acalanes Dons rode high, wide and handsome last Friday night as they ran and passed their way to a convincing 27-13 win over a highly rated John Swett eleven.

The game was played at Acalanes Memorial Field.

The Acalanes team took the ball in the first quarter and marched 65 yards as Quarterback Ken Green masterminded an attack that found the Dons' forward wall ripping the would-be opposition to shreds.

INITIAL SCORE

The initial score resulted when Ken smashed over from the one-yard line on a sneak. Seconds later it was 7-0 as Bob Wikenback bulled his way from the two-yard stripe for the extra point.

Crockett came back strong, however, and on their second play Brian Harrah romped 60 yards to pay dirt. The conversion kick was wide.

BLUE AND WHITE

The rest of the way it was all Blue and White.

Green scored again in the second period on another quarter sneak from the two. The conversion failed but soon the Dons were knocking at the goal line again and Bob Wikenback plowed off tackle for the final two yards. Eddy Grueb plunged off tackle for the extra point.

SECOND HALF

In the second half Harrah scored for John Swett after one of the few gains by the visitors, only to have Al Culp, a scat back who bothered the Indians all night long, ramble seven yards on a handoff.

The game found the Dons in command all the way and playing their best game to date. Their win was over a heavily favored John Swett that was battered, weary and dazed when the final gun sounded.

POWER DRIVING

The Don team played well as a whole, with Eddy Grueb, Al Culp, Dick Fey, Bob Wikenback, Ken lumbia.

In the local high school league, Diablo over John Swett, Pittsburg over Antioch and Acalanes over Alhambra.

PACIFIC GAS AND ELECTRIC COMPANY

Phone Co. Seeks Rehearing on Its Rate Hike Plea

A petition to reconsider its recent decision against granting the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company a $36,000,000 rate increase was under consideration by the Public Utilities Commission following presentation last week.

Claiming the commission's action in dismissing the rate request was contrary to law, spokesmen for the telephone company submitted the petition to the body. The dismissal came October 19 after presentation of the company's case, but before any opposition by protesting cities or commission experts was heard.

"We have found no precedent for such drastic action in the history of the commission," the company stated.

The company may appeal to the State Supreme Court if the commission refuses to grant a rehearing.

Butlers Purchase Miller-Blackwood Auto Dealership

Gorill K. Butler and his father, Roy Butler, have purchased the Miller-Blackwood interests in the Dodge-Plymouth automobile dealership for the Lafayette-Walnut Creek area.

The new company will be known as the Butler Automobile Company and will continue at the same location in Lafayette, on Mt. Diablo Boulevard, one-half mile east of the center of town.

The new owners, experienced automobile men, were born in Oakland and both went to the University of California.

Gorill K. Butler is an old-time resident of Pleasant Acres, where he and his wife, Kathryn, are active in community affairs. Since leaving the army he has been on the sales force of one of the best regarded dealers in Oakland.

Roy Butler has some interesting "firsts" to his credit. He built the first building in Berkeley for an automobile agency, where he was Dodge Brothers dealer 35 years ago. He unloaded the first automobiles to arrive via freight car in Berkeley. He brought the first Dodge Brothers sedans to reach California in a carload by express from Detroit to Berkeley.

He was the first president of Tilden Park Golf Club. As president and manager of Butler-Veitch, Inc., he pioneered the sale of Fageol trucks and farm tractors on the Pacific Coast and was distributor for Marmon and Franklin automobiles in Northern California during the years 1917 to 1929. He was with the Ed Wells Company in Oakland.

Burglars Steal Tools, Tires at Acalanes Shop

For the second time in recent weeks burglars gained entry into Acalanes school buildings. Filchers entered the school auto shop last Sunday by breaking a window.

Several hundred dollars' worth of hand tools, drills and wrenches were taken, along with the white wall wheels of the car of Gary De Angelis of Lafayette, Acalanes football player. The student's car was parked in the maintenance shop.

The school property stolen is insured, according to school officials.

Prompt action on the part of deputies of the county sheriff's office resulted in the arrest and confession of three Richmond youths of the burglary.

The stolen tools and tires were all recovered and returned to the school Wednesday morning, and the thieves are being held for trial. De Angelis' discovered the burglary Sunday morning when he took a companion to the school to show him the car through the shop windows.

Canyon Women Discuss Plans

A large crowd attended the Canyon Women's Club meeting at Canyon School last Thursday evening.

As Mrs. Pauline King had resigned as president, former vice-president Mrs. John Shally conducted the meeting. A new vice-president, Mrs. Ruth Seeds, was voted in. Mrs. Zemke and Mrs. Frey, teachers at Canyon school, were present and asked parents' aid in the costuming of the school children for the forthcoming operetta to be presented at the Christmas party.

ANNUAL AFFAIR

This is a traditional affair, and each year the Women's Club does the decorating and provides presents and goodies for every child of the community. And of course the climax is always the arrival of Santa Claus. This year the party will be held at the Redwood Inn Hall on Thursday evening, December 14. A report on the County chest x-ray program was given by Mrs. Pat Foster. Mrs. Velda O'Neil suggested a Red Cross first aid class which would be possible with the sign up of at least twenty Canyon residents.

The most serious problem of the evening was put before the club by Mrs. Phyllis Rice, a member of Canyon School board. She stated that a drilled well had been recommended by County Health officials as the present well does not meet with their approval. In the meantime the school is buying bottled water.

TO RAISE FUNDS

As it will be up to the Canyon community to finance this project, the Women's Club immediately launched plans for raising funds, the first of which will be a cake and pastry sale. Other proposed projects are a turkey sale and a pot luck dinner to be held soon.

Surprise of the evening was a short singing act, the Cowboy and

WHAT BEAUTY! WHAT LOVELINESS! Meaning, of course, the beauty and loveliness of the music being strummed on his guitar by Charles Weber of Lafayette, while, left to right, Donn Beardon, Avic Hutton, Art Dull and Shirley Daniels look and listen admiringly and comment on his musical artistry. These five Acalanes High School students and many, many more will appear in the gala Acalanes variety show, "Shore Leave," which will be presented at the Don gym tonight and tomorrow night.

Enthusiastic Chorus in 'Messiah'

The group now meeting at Acalanes High School each Monday evening, is the most enthusiastic chorus yet to rehearse for the forthcoming presentation of Handel's "Messiah," now a tradition in this area.

Soloists to appear with the chorus are soprano, Margaret Price of Walnut Creek, who will be remembered for her outstanding performance in last year's presentation of the famous oratorio; contralto, Elizabeth Pharris of San Francisco, soloist at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in San Francisco.

The tenor is Carl Hague, soloist with the San Francisco Symphony. Mr. Hague is especially noted for his performance in their presentation of Beethoven's Ninth Symphony. Bass soloist is Bob Lancaster from Alameda, who will be remembered for his work as soloist in the "Creation," given last June at Westminister Bowl in, San Joaquin Miller Park.

The "Messiah" under the direction of Bruce Handley, will be presented at Acalanes Auditorium the evening of December 10.

If you love children — yours and your neighbors' — slow down when you drive home today.

Billed by student body officers as the biggest entertainment effort in the history of the school, "Shore Leave" will feature a cast of 135 plus the work of hundreds of other students associated with the stage crew, art class set designer groups, sewing classes.

Entirely original in its production, the show follows the antics and adventures of a group of WAVES and sailors through the most romantic ports of the world.

Tickets are on sale at Reilly's Music Company and Diablo Drug Store in Walnut Creek, Campana Music Company, Lafayette Dime and Dollar and Kiddietown in Lafayette, and the Orinda Village Store and Orinda Pharmacy in Orinda.

Assembly Dance Held Saturday

Freshmen and sophomores of Acalanes attended the first dance of the season at Lafayette Veterans' Hall Saturday night, with juniors and seniors by-passing the affair in favor of their own special series of parties.

The first of these junior-senior affairs is scheduled for January 20 at the Brazilian Pavilion, with attire to be formal.

Plans for the upper classmen's dance were made at a recent meeting at Roger Dunn's home where Carola Courtwright, Dorothy Jordan and Roger discussed arrangements.

Final rehearsals for the production were held this week under the direction of Miss Millicent Hamburger, Richard Nesbitt and Mrs. Margaret Mahler, faculty moderators for the show.

If the all-student production is well received by the community, school officials hope to make the project an annual affair.

31 Faculty Members at Acalanes File Protest vs. New State Loyalty Oath

Thirty-one members of the Acalanes High School faculty, in a letter sent to Governor Earl Warren and both houses of the Legislature, were on record this week as protesting in principle the new state-required loyalty oath.

All 53 faculty members had previously signed the oath. Following this, 31 of them signed the protest. The faculty constitutes the Acalanes Teachers Association and of the National Education Association, and it was as members of these organizations that the objectors protested.

Copies of their protest were filed with the state and bay section executive boards of the California Teachers Association.

Principal Neil M. Parsons of Acalanes said that no teachers had objected to him about signing the oath.

THE LETTER. Stressing that "this statement is in no way a criticism of our local school administration and community," the protest letter stated:

"We believe in democracy as expressed in the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution of the United States of America, and the Constitution of the State of California.

"Each of us before being granted a teaching credential signed an oath of allegiance that stated:

"I solemnly swear (affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States of America, the Constitution of the State of California, and the laws of the United States and the State of California, and will by precept and example, promote respect for the Flag and Statutes of the United States and of the State of California, reverence for law and order, and undivided allegiance to the Government of the United States of America."

"This we signed in good faith and continue to support. Support of this oath is in our opinion incompatible with membership in any communistic or other totalitarian group.

"Therefore, although we have signed the new oath required of us (Government Code Ch. 8, Div. 4, Title 1), we object to it as being unnecessary because of the first oath and inconsistent with the spirit of the United States Constitution.

SPECIFIC POINTS "Specifically we object to:

"1. The method of forcing signing by economic pressure.

"2. The possible implications of the second paragraph:

"(a) That guilt by association may be substituted for individual justice, and

"(b) that it is impossible for innocent membership in an organization prior to enactment of this law to result in loss of a job for an individual.

"3. The doubt cast upon our integrity by the necessity of having to sign a new oath.

"4. The futility of this new oath as a weapon to combat the very real menace of communism.

"5. The tendency toward thought control.

"In summary, we believe this new oath and law are unconstitutional because they impair the obligation of contract; have the inherent possibility of being used as a bill of attainder and/or post facto law; and violate the spirit of due process of law."

County Highway Needs To Be Presented To Legislative Committee This Morning

Meeting with members of the Board of Supervisors last Friday night, the highway committee of the Contra Costa County Development Association outlined a list of county highway deficiencies and requirements which will be presented to the Collier legislative highway committee at a meeting at Richmond's City Hall this morning.

The group also endorsed in principle the San Francisco Bay bridges master plan recently announced by the Bay Area Council of the California State Chamber of Commerce and recommended that this plan include the provision of a Martinez-Benicia bridge.

JUDSON TO PRESENT

The program to be urged for state consummation will be presented to State Senator Randolph Collier's committee by Attorney Joseph L. Judson of Pittsburg, chairman of the association's highway committee, recently appointed by the Board of Supervisors as their official liaison representative to the California Highway Commission.

Supervisors Ray Taylor and Jake Frederickson, who attended last Friday night's meeting, said they and Board Chairman H. L. Cummings and Supervisor Sam Ripley will also attend. All members of the association's highway committee and representatives of chambers of commerce in the county will also attend.

LIST REQUIREMENTS The highway requirements Judson will present with request for state consummation include:

1.—Completion of the Arnold Industrial Highway from Antioch to Brentwood with an immediate location survey.

2.—Construction of Richmond-San Rafael Ferry Road, now incorporated in the state system as Highway 69.

3.—Four laning of five miles between Concord and Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

4.—Six laning of 9.3 miles of the Lafayette Freeway.

5.—Four laning of 11.2 miles of the Franklin Canyon highway.

6.—Construction of three miles of a new roadway from Franklin Canyon highway to Crockett.

7.—Development of Highway 40, Richmond.

8.—Development of the Richmond-Carquinez Bridge highway.

9.—Reconstruction of Highway 21, Martinez to the Alameda County line via Walnut Creek and Danville.

BRIDGE URGED Supervisor Taylor strongly urged inclusion of the proposed Martinez-Benicia bridge in the bay bridge master plan.

"This project is really a continuation of Highway 21 which local efforts succeeded in placing in the state system," Taylor said. "It is of highest importance as a state, bi-county and area development. We should gain strong supporting interest from the military and from areas as far south as San Jose and as far north as the Redwood Empire."

FOR THIS AREA Taylor also urged the strongest representations be made for the Concord-Walnut Creek-Lafayette improvements, pointing out that State Engineer Al Weymouth has stated that such work that is being done is being provided "merely to hold roads together."

"Homes by the thousands have been built in the central part of the county," the supervisor said. "Hundreds more are projected right now. We must strongly impress our requirement or else we will face a tremendous bottleneck in development as well as in traffic."

In arriving at the recommendations for state work to be presented to the Collier committee, the committee agreed that its listings should not be accorded any priorities.

Report Tells Details on County Gambling

Following are excerpts from the State Crime Commission's report which relate to Contra Costa County in the attempt to organize a statewide system of racket protection, 1947-50:

"The years of 1947 to 1950 have witnessed a persistent attempt to organize a system of state-wide protection for the operation of criminal rackets in California with primary emphasis on the gambling racket . . .

"Although from the first day of the commission's existence reports were received to the effect that racketeers, and particularly gamblers in several parts of the state, were being told by someone that in order to avoid interference, they must pay regular tribute to persons who were represented as being connected with the Office of the Attorney General of the state, it was many months, and only after the receipt of a very large amount of evidence on this subject coming from many widely separated places, that the commission became convinced that an actual attempt was being made to organize a state-wide system of protection for rackets.

" . . . enough evidence has been obtained and confirmed by judgments in the criminal courts to establish beyond reasonable question the existence of a plan and the persistent attempt, pursuant to plan, to set up a system of state-wide racket protection. Evidence of the attempt to organize a state-wide system of racket protection appeared in no less than 16 counties.

ONE OF THE EARLIEST

"One of the earliest of these incidents and one of the first reported to the commission occurred in Contra Costa County.

"During the early part of the year 1947 District Attorney Edmund G. Brown of San Francisco was engaged in the prosecution of the notorious Elmer 'Bones' Remmer, on a charge of maintaining the Menlo Club in San Francisco as a public gaming house. On March 4, 1947, Assistant District Attorney Thomas C. Lynch, accompanied by a San Francisco police officer, called at the residence of E. L. 'Buster' Price, a professional gambler in El Cerrito, Contra Costa County. This visit was in response to a telephone call from Price, stating that he had important information concerning Remmer which he wished to disclose.

"Upon arrival, the San Francisco men found not only Price but William Pechart, Contra Costa County gambler, as well, and Pechart remained through the whole meeting, which lasted several hours.

ACCUSES REMMER

"The gist of Price's complaint was to the effect that Bones Remmer was demanding 50 percent of the profits from the operation of the Wagon Wheel, a gambling establishment in Contra Costa County, in default of which he threatened to close the place through his influence with the Attorney General's Office.

"Price stated to Lynch that in 1946 he had purchased a 10 percent interest from Bones Remmer in the gambling casino called Cal-Neva Lodge on Lake Tahoe for $30,000 and that Pechart had advanced a large part of the money to Price for this purpose. Price stated that he had agreed to manage the casino for Remmer and that in return for these services and his $30,000 investment he was to receive 10 percent of the profit. Price told Lynch that he did manage the establishment during the months of July, August and September, 1946, and that the gross profit was in excess of $600,000 and the net profit was approximately $238,000 of which his share was $23,800.

"Price complained that Remmer had refused to pay him his 10 percent; that Remmer stated the amount he would give him depended upon how much he could 'cheat the government out of in taxes.' This, according to Price's statement to Lynch, was his first experience with Remmer, but was not the main basis of his complaint.

PARTNER OF PECHART

"Price told the San Francisco men that for some time past he had been a partner with Pechart in the Wagon Wheel in which a race horse book and a barboot game were in operation under an arrangement in which Price was to receive 20 percent of the net profits. The fact of this arrangement was confirmed to Lynch by Pechart.

"Price told Lynch that Remmer had told him and Pechart in October, 1946, that he, Remmer, was contributing a lot of money to elect Fred N. Howser Attorney General, and that when this was accomplished, he, Remmer, was going to 'take over.' Remmer had said that he was going to be in charge of all gambling in certain counties and that he was going to 'cut himself in' for 50 percent of the profits of those establishments permitted to operate.

"Price stated to Lynch that only a few days before the interview with the San Francisco men a representative of Remmer, known to Pechart and Price as 'Andrew,' called on them to tell them that Remmer was cutting himself in for 50 percent of the net profits of the Wagon Wheel, and as a result Price's interest in the profits was being reduced from 20 percent to 10 percent and Pechart's interest was being reduced pro rata.

CONFIRMED IN PART

"Price's statements were confirmed to Lynch by Pechart to the extent of admitting that he was indeed turning over 50 percent of the net profits of the Wagon Wheel to 'Andrew.' Pechart denied, however, that the money was going to Remmer, notwithstanding Price's insistence that such was the case. Price told Lynch he wanted the San Francisco men to expose Remmer and his connections with the Attorney General's Office and was willing to see the Wagon Wheel closed down for good rather than lose a half of his business to Remmer and see him take over gambling in all the northern counties of the state.

TINY HELLER

"In Alameda County, one Tiny Heller had for many years been openly operating, in the City of Oakland, a betting commission business, handling bets on baseball, football, basketball games and other sporting events. In the fall of 1947 Heller was told by local authorities that his business was illegal and would not be tolerated further. He closed.

"According to the report made by Heller to law enforcement officers at the time, on October 23, 1947, he received a telephone call from a friend in Los Angeles whose name he refused to reveal but whom he described as a bookmaker.

"This friend informed Heller that he should expect to hear later that same day from Walter Lentz, Charles Hoy or 'Buck' Caddel, investigators of the Attorney General's Office, who would see him either at his place of business or at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco. This friend told Heller that he could continue his betting commission business if he

Captain Sandford Sez:

OUR ANNUAL VISIT to the Cow Palace was a great success. To those who were not fortunate enough to see the show, the following description of Slim Pickings (famous rodeo clown) in action, may prove amusing.

One large Brahma bull, which a cowpoke had failed to ride, pawing around the arena, looking for trouble. Slim Pickings, attired in the somewhat dilapidated regalia of a Spanish bullfighter, got down on his knees, approached the bull stealthily and moaned.

When the clown reached a point at which his nose was only a couple of feet from the bull he stopped, and with his hands, first left and then right, he scooped up the earth . . . tan bark . . . and tossed it behind him, and moaned some more.

The bull retaliated in a similar fashion with its front hooves.

This pantomime continued until the bull took the initiative, at which time Slim Pickings deftly evaded the charge and left the bull with his cape on its horns.

As long as no one got hurt, it was a very clever piece of business.

A GOOD LETTER written by Mr. Charles W. Chattin regarding conditions on our highways interested me very much. One of the terms used by him and probably coined by him is certainly very expressive. I am referring to "eager weaver."

Our highways are certainly covered with this species. If the more conservative type of drivers did not slow down and stop to permit the weaving, these "eager weavers" would soon be depleted in number, because head-on collisions are often very deadly.

arranged for payoffs to those men.

VISIT FROM KESSEL

"Nobody called on Heller on that day. Instead, on the morning of the following day, Heller received a personal visit from Dave Kessel. Kessel is one of the principal partners with Pechart in the Wagon Wheel in Contra Costa County, mentioned above, and personally manages the operation of the horse race book operated there.

"According to Heller's report, Kessel told him that he and his partner, Pechart, were members of the group, which included Bones Remmer and others, who were going to control all sizable gambling in Northern California through the Attorney General's Office. No gambling would be permitted except on the payment of protection and Heller's betting commission business in particular could not be operated unless he paid.

"Kessel claimed he had seen 'the boys' and that Heller would be allowed to operate his business if he paid to them 50 percent of his net profit. Kessel said Heller would have to pay the 50 percent 'under the counter' to Kessel who would take care of 'the boys.' In addition, a bookkeeper would be sent up from Los Angeles to keep track of Heller's income and see that the proper amount was paid, and the bookkeeper's salary would have to be paid by Heller.

REFUSES TO PAY

"Heller claims he flatly refused to make any such arrangement, telling Kessel that he had never paid a cent of graft to anybody in his whole lifetime and that he was not going to start then.

"When Heller proved adamant, Heller reports Kessel as having told him that he could reopen for the time being in spite of the warning Heller had received from the police department, and could finish out the football season, but that he would have to make arrangements for the payment of protection before the beginning of the basketball and baseball seasons in the spring. Under these circumstances, Heller reopened.

"On November 17, 1947, and without further warning, Tiny Heller's establishment in Oakland was raided and he was arrested by the Attorney General's special agent, Charles Hoy. Alameda County's District Attorney, J. Frank Coakley, immediately stepped into the case and took over the prosecution. The case was prosecuted energetically and successfully, although the district attorney got only grudging help from the Attorney General who presumed to criticize publicly the conduct of the case even before the matter was tried. Heller was convicted and put out of business permanently.

"At his trial, Heller did not testify on his own behalf and the matters which preceded his arrest were not made a part of the record or otherwise made public. But this story was no afterthought on Heller's part. It was reported by him at the time it happened and Sheriff H. P. Gleason of Alameda County and District Attorney Coakley were both aware of Kessel's demands made on Heller before the arrest or other action developed. They did not know, however, that Heller had presumed to reopen his business on the strength of Kessel's assurance.

"After his conviction, Heller was invited by Pechart and Kessel to resume his betting commission business in partnership with them in Contra Costa County. This offer was refused. The terms of Heller's probation prohibited his engaging in the gambling business.

PICKS ROLAND

"Kessel then selected Jack Roland, a gambler from Oregon, to try to pick up the betting business formerly operated by Heller in Oakland. Roland had some success, as is indicated by the telephone charges of $7,915.12 for business transacted in 1948.

"It was reported in the press and was well known that Pechart and Kessel, through Roland, were taking over and operating in Contra Costa County the business from which Heller had been eliminated, but no action was ever taken in Contra Costa County by the Attorney General or by anyone else to arrest the new operators.

Therapy Center Will Move Soon Into New Home

The Mount Diablo Child Therapy Center will soon be moving into a new home.

This new home will be on the lower floor of a new medical building at 2663 Mount Diablo Boulevard in Walnut Creek.

After working for a year and a half in their quaint but cramped quarters in Lafayette, the workers are looking forward to having adequate working space. The directors feel that the new location will be more accessible for both patients and workers.

A great deal of remodeling will be necessary to convert large rooms into offices and treatment rooms. Special doors and ramps must be built to accommodate patients.

Through the efforts of L. B. Buck, secretary of Local 2046 of the American Federation of Labor in Martinez, several union carpenters have volunteered to do this work without charge. These generous carpenters will do this remodeling this Saturday and Sunday.

Any other local carpenters who would like to have a part in this project will be welcome.

Carl Mehler, contractor, will donate his time to supervise the job.

Parents' Group Holds Meeting

Sixteen new members of the Acalanes Union High Parents' Advisory Committee held their initial meeting of the new school year Wednesday night. The group serves as an advisory body to school officials, reviewing and discussing current school problems.

Serving on the advisory committee this year are A. W. Bowron, Mrs. J. Jansse, George Klement, Donald P. Krotz and G. A. Somers, all of Orinda; C. L. Aiman, Mrs. J. C. Bronson, Mrs. Arvid Johnson, Mrs. R. C. McBride, Mrs. Claude McPhee and K. S. Spoon of Walnut Creek; Arthur Combs, D. H. Fibush, Mrs. Clark Rucker and Mrs. J. F. Seubler of Lafayette, and Mrs. T. E. Carroll, president of the Acalanes Parents' Club, of Moraga.

The group generally represents a cross section of the grades at the high school, the sexes and the communities served by the school.

Red Cross Offers First Aid Course

The Mt. Diablo Chapter of the American Red Cross which includes the Lafayette and Orinda areas is conducting a Standard First Aid Class at the Chapter House, 1607 Locust Street, Walnut Creek on each Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p.m. There is room in the class for any local people who wish to aid the Disaster Relief Program and they are urged to attend.

The Disaster Relief Committee of the Mt. Diablo Chapter also needs additional volunteers who will receive instruction and information in various duty assignments in the event of a major disaster in the Bay area.

Combinations of husband and wife who will work together are specially desired. The Chapter maintains a headquarters for registration at the Chapter House or information can be obtained from Col. C. J. Herman the Committee Chairman by calling Lafayette 4428 during business hours or Lafayette 2670

Sun to Publish Two Days Early; Deadlines Ahead

There's no need to tell you that next Thursday is Thanksgiving Day.

But we do have to tell you that because of that holiday next week's issue of the SUN will be out two days earlier than usual—next Wednesday morning instead of Friday morning. Contra Costa Shopping News will be distributed Tuesday.

That means, of course, that all schedules are advanced two days for the next issue. Classified deadline Monday noon; display advertising Saturday night.

Therefore we are asking all news correspondents, publicity chairmen and others to keep this in mind.

Specifically, that means that as much news as possible should be turned in by tomorrow and Sunday. Monday night is deadline for organization news. Tuesday will be next week's press day.

We realize that this stepped-up schedule for this one week means an inconvenience to you. But your cooperation will be sincerely appreciated and will mean that you and the staff will be able to enjoy Thanksgiving dinner with the knowledge that the SUN is out. Thank you.

'Blind Alley' Opening Here

The Lafayette Town Hall will house the stimulating "Blind Alley" for a three weeks' showing tomorrow through November 19, November 25-26 and December 2-3.

Featuring the same cast that appeared recently in a special performance for the Press Club in San Francisco, "Blind Alley" is a three-act psychological drama of the science of the mind versus brute force. This suspenseful and gripping drama was movie fare on two occasions and a memorable Broadway hit several seasons back.

Under the direction of Richard Freyer, Allison Gowing will play an escaped psychotic criminal and Gloria Michaels his companion, while Jack Cahill has the role of a professor of psychology with Rachel Kidd as his wife. D. Stuart Lucas, Jules Landry, Lila Martin, Tacia Gift, Lloyd Sykes and Joseph Cardinale complete the cast of this timely Meridian Theatre Production.

Tickets are now available at Sherman Clay, Oakland; Tupper Reed, Berkeley and the Theatre Box Office.

Otis Walker on U.S. Grand Jury

Otis H. Walker, 500 Miner Road, was one of the 23 new Federal Grand Jury members impaneled last week for a four-month term by Federal Judge Michael J. Roche in San Francisco.

Earl Snapp, retired salesman for the California Packing Corporation, San Francisco, was chosen as foreman and Vincent Holland, Alameda, a retired bank official, as deputy foreman.

Walker is an executive director, Credit Management Association.

Home Society's Luncheon on Dec. 5th

Mrs. Fred Repp of Orchard Road, president of the Pandora Chapter of the Children's Home Society, and Mrs. Arthur Stelefater of Los Aramis Road, president of the Heidi Chapter, will be honored guests at the Home's all-chapter luncheon at the Mark Hopkins Hotel on December 5.

Highlight of the luncheon, which is the first general gathering of all the members, will be an indoctrination movie, which was produced in Hollywood by motion picture experts and stars who volunteered their services to interpret the work of the adoption organization. Focus of attention will also be on the "heirloom Christmas stockings" decorated with sequins and pearls, jewels and bibelots, which has been on display throughout the Bay Area in department stores and hotels.

Coins are being collected to fill the stockings to aid the Home in caring for the young charges who come under its protection.

Over a hundred members, active, inactive and associate, from this whole area will motor across the Bay for the luncheon.

Twenty-Six Acalanes Girls Want Jobs

Twenty-six Acalanes girls are interested in getting part time employment or holiday Christmas jobs, according to a survey just made by Miss Anita Anderson, instructor in the high school commercial department.

The girls, all commercial students, are interested in general clerical, bookkeeping, simple stenography, typist, receptionist and sales work.

Twenty-one of the girls surveyed indicated a preference for year 'round after school or Saturday part time work.

Five of the students polled indicated a desire to secure positions just for the Christmas holidays.

Most of the girls seeking employment are in their senior year at high school, a few are juniors.

Employers interested in the potential employment pool at the high school are requested to contact Miss Anderson of the commerce department for jobs in the business field, or Lee Russell, head of the school counseling department, for positions in other lines. The high school phone is Walnut Creek 6707.

Principals Meet At Acalanes H.S.

Principals and administrators from approximately 85 high schools and elementary schools in Contra Costa County met yesterday at Acalanes Union High School.

Walter Gordon, outstanding citizen and chairman of the Adult Authority of the State of California, the state organization in charge of adult penal institutions, addressed the group.

Before the evening dinner administrators sat in on a panel discussion on "Problems of Teaching the Fundamentals—Reading, Writing and Arithmetic."

Mrs. Colinda Betzer, principal of a Concord elementary school, directed the conference. Arrangements at Acalanes were made by Miss Lily Lahti, dean of girls, and Miss Helen Peterson, cafeteria manager and home economics instructor.

After Birthday Songs, 'Kansan' Here Tomorrow

Teatro Para Ninos November 4 had a gay crowd of youngsters enjoying Hopalong Cassidy.

Four "Happy Birthdays" were sung: to Bill Pedder, eight years old; Manuel Neves, 12 years old; Sandra McGregor, 12 years old, and Gary Staff, seven years old, who had as his guests Jim McClasky, Glen Tobias and Clyde McDonald. David Brown led the salute to the flag.

Last Saturday Teatro Para Ninos had the "Kansan," with Richard Dix as the main feature, and cartoons and short subjects. Time: 1 to 3 p.m. Place: Orinda School auditorium.

Health Committee Assists Dr. Blum

The Health Committee of the Orinda Mothers Club is working with Dr. H. L. Blum, county health officer, to give tetanus and diphtheria shots to school and pre-school children desiring them. Smallpox vaccinations will also be given on November 29.

Those assisting Dr. Blum last week at Glorietta School included Mrs. G. Butler and Mrs. H. Hauser; at Orinda School, Mrs. U. B. Smith and Mrs. Ray Icker assisting.

Others on the Health Committee are Mesdames H. C. Gathings, R. A. Stark, H. Breed, Ralph Hall, and William Brailsford. Many other mothers have volunteered to help as needed.

4 Orinda Kids Will Be on TV Quiz Show

Four Orinda youngsters, David Brown, Bicky Clifford, Judy Henderson and Donna Lane, are scheduled to appear in a quiz show called "School Days" to be presented on television tonight at 6:20 p.m. The program is sponsored by Dentrix Products.

Cubs Monthly Meeting Features Navajo Indian Displays, Headdresses

The cubs of Pack 52 are going to the Cal game tomorrow. This will be their second game of the year. As before, the group should meet at the south entrance to the stadium one-half hour before game time.

The monthly pack meeting was held at the Orinda School November 10. Cubmaster Otto Schrader was in charge and described the official uniform to the boys and their parents. It consists of the official cub shirt, neckerchief and belt with blue jeans and leather shoes. No cap is necessary.

GIVES WARNING

Cubmaster Schrader stressed that boys should not ride their bikes after 5 p.m. as it is extremely dangerous in the dusk, especially as most of the bikes do not have proper lights and reflectors.

The theme of the evening was "Navajo Indians." The various dens made displays and individual boys made Navajo headdresses. Den 3 gave a demonstration of a Navajo dance.

WRESTLING CONTEST

An Indian wrestling contest was won by John Dodge of Den 5. Refreshments were served by the mothers and boys of Den 3.

Den 1 distinguished itself by winning both the achievement and attendance awards. This new den is made up of Phillip Cook, William Brown, Stephen Parks, David Doxsee, Milton Howe and Richard Mann.

RECEIVE BOBCAT

Sixteen new boys were initiated and received their Bobcat rank: William Brown, Jud Carter, Robert Connolly, David Doxsee, Fred Honnold, Milton Howe, George Kimball, Bill McQuire, Robin McIntyre, Don Minor, Richard Moore, George Mulks III, Tommy Nichols, Peter Read, Kenneth Sheerin and Jack Stevens.

Three transfers were taken into the pack: Phillip Cook, Richard Mann and Stephen Parks.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The monthly pack committee meeting of den mothers and committeemen was held Monday at the residence of Joe De Maria. Ten members were present.

A District Den Mothers training course is being organized with the first meeting yesterday at the Methodist Church on Locust Street in Walnut Creek. A second one will be held November 30.

There will be a scout and cub merit badge display at Acalanes High School sometime in February. Tickets will be 35 cents of which the district will get 10 cents and the pack 25 cents.

NEXT MEETING

The next pack meeting, December 8, will be a Christmas theme "Helps." The boys during the month will make and fill Christmas stockings to be given to ward patients of a hospital. The meeting will be in the form of a Christmas party. Each den is to make tree decorations. Each boy should bring a 25 cent gift to be given out by Santa Claus, who has promised to attend. If brothers and sisters are coming

Champlin Talks To DAR Chapter

Berkeley Hills Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, met at the home of Mrs. Will F. Morrish on Glorietta Boulevard Friday to hear Malcolm M. Champlin, World War II Navy veteran and vice-commander of 10th District, American Legion.

The title of his talk was "Observations From a Trip to Europe." The program was arranged by the National Defense Committee, whose chairman is Mrs. John R. Lowe.

Mrs. Lowe headed the refreshment committee for the meeting.

Gamma Phis Hold Breakfast

A 10 o'clock breakfast last Sunday, sponsored by Eta chapter of the Gamma Phi Beta sorority at University of California, marked observance of the seventy-sixth anniversary of the sorority's founding. Eta chapter was hostess to alumnae of the Bay Area for the occasion which celebrated the group's beginning on November 11, 1874, at Syracuse University.

Mrs. W. A. Patterson of Orinda, Province director, was among the honored guests. Mrs. Donald B. Woodcock, Orinda, president of Contra Costa alumnae chapter, was among those receiving the day's guests.

Special music for the occasion was provided by the Gamma Phi Beta Quartet.

Bv Girl Scouts Skit Hit Scored

The Orinda Dramateurs would have done well to have had a "scout" at the recent Juliette Lowe tea, as the girls of Mrs. John Gompertz' fifth grade Girl Scouts did a terrific job in their skit—"Gold in Them Thar Hills."

These girls are now working toward becoming second class scouts. They have chosen pottery making and leather tooling as their next endeavors.

with the cub, he should bring a gift for them.

Cubmaster Schrader asked the dens to practice the "living circle" and for the dinner of each den to come to each meeting prepared to report on the doings of his den during the month.

The next committee meeting is to be at Bob Brown's.

Masons Hold 3rd Degree Monday

Orinda Lodge 704, F. & A.M., will hold a Third Degree at their meeting at Orinda Community Church School building Monday night at 8.

Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the session.

Lodge officers were officially installed at constitution ceremonies at the Walnut Creek Masonic Temple last Friday night. Officials of the Grand Lodge of California conducted the ritual.

The newly chartered Orinda Lodge 704 is headed by S. G. Culver, Worshipful Master.

Plan 'Welcome to Orinda' Sign

As a joint venture, Orinda Chamber of Commerce, Orinda Lions Club and Orinda Rotary Club are working on the construction and placing of two Welcome to Orinda signs to be located at both approaches to the community along Mt. Diablo Boulevard.

Besides the community welcome, preliminary sketches show the distinguishing service club wheels announcing the time and location of meetings of the three organizations, extending below the board bearing the Orinda greeting.

Wayne Littlejohn represents the Lions and Jack Buchter the Rotary Club on the committee undertaking the project. The complete sign is expected to measure approximately 10 feet by six feet.

Kellys, Griffins at Sorority Open House

The Douglas Kellys and the Allen Griffins of Orinda attended an open house at the Gamma Phi Beta sorority house in Berkeley after the Cal-UCLA game last Saturday.

Drive very carefully—the life you save may be your own.

Richards Return From Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. George Richards and their 12-year-old daughter, Nancy, and Mr. and Mrs. Van Gooch, were scheduled to return to their Orinda homes yesterday after a three-week vacation trip to the Hawaiian Islands.

Letters from the party who made the trip together expressed enthusiasm for the Islands and all the attractions there, and commented on the excellent reservations made for them through Worden's Travel Agency.

The Halekulani Hotel was their headquarters while in Honolulu.

Girl Scouts Aid At Room Meeting

The Girl Scouts of Troop 25 showed a true spirit of service by making and serving refreshments for Mrs. Louis Ambler's room meeting held Friday, November 3.

The seventh grade girls in the troop are Heather Ambler, Patricia Bacon, Silvia Coffey, Marjorie Fish, Lynn Pollack, Jean Reid, Joan Ross and Nan St. Clair.

The girls also displayed the two sets of bedding they made for the kindergarten doll beds. These included patchwork quilts, pads and sheets.

Girl Scout Cookie Drive Now Going On

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale got off to a good start in Orinda this week, according to Mrs. Chris E. Olsen, chairman.

With special prizes being announced for "high sales," all Orinda Brownies and Girl Scouts are out canvassing their neighborhoods.

First on the list of prizes is a full campership, followed by a one-half campership, six prizes of partial camperships ($10), seven full camperships for day camp, seven troop flags and a World Pin to each Girl Scout selling 25 or more boxes of the cookies or a Headband for an Intermediate Scout selling the same amount.

The Vernon L. Axelson garage on Davis Road has been used as a temporary warehouse, with the following committee women aiding Mrs. Olsen in delivering and collections:

Mesdames J. Drexel Gibbins, Edgar B. Stewart, James H. Gardiner, Joseph W. Lang, J. D. Nicolet, J. H. Stahle, Warren Pollock, J. R. Creighton, R. F. Tharp, B. P. Olsen, F. M. McMillan, Kenwood S. Hunter, Mel W. Nickerson, Marvin T. Bonds and George F. Rousch.

Camp Fire Girls Will Visit Zoo

Tomorrow the Camp Fire Girls will go to Fleishhacker Zoo, taking their lunch and going in private cars.

After enjoying the zoo as a whole, each will try to make an intensive study of some one animal.

At their regular Saturday meetings the girls have been busy working on their beaded ceremonial head bands. A new member welcomed into the group is Peggy Gompertz.

Has Your Phone Rung Recently? Well, Here's Why

Orinda Association's membership drive was in full swing this week. Conducted by the organization's Civic Affairs Committee, the campaign is scheduled to continue through Sunday. Since last Friday morning, a hard-working corps of women has been keeping the phones ringing by calling Orinda families with the request, "Invest in Orinda!"

Co-chairmen of the telephone committee are Bob Clough, who also heads the Civic Affairs Committee, and Harold Rote. General chairman of the membership drive is Mrs. Helen Vurek, who is secretary of the Civic Affairs Committee.

'KICKOFF' MEETING

Official "kickoff" for the intensive drive was a "town hall" public meeting Thursday night of last week at the Orinda Grammar School auditorium. Over 100 persons attended the gathering.

According to Association President Marvin Bonds, who presided at the rally, the organization or renewed their membership, on the basis of $2 dues per family through 1951.

SPEAKERS

Speakers at the meeting included Brigadier General Bradford G. Chynoweth, retired, who talked on civilian defense and disaster relief; Stanley Allen, on Moraga Highway parking problems; Clarence Fleager, on Crossroads traffic problems; Dr. Ralph Hall of the Acalanes High School District Board, on efforts to obtain a high school site in Orinda; Fire Commissioner Gilbert Earle, on the November 21 $130,000 fire bond issue election, and Bonds, who reported on negotiations with P.G.&E. toward use of the company's land for a one-block street to connect Camino Encinas and Golden Gate Road.

(See separate stories on talks by Chynoweth, Allen and Bonds.)

Secretary-Treasurer Clarence E. Betz of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce reminded the crowd of the next night's community dance, sponsored by the chamber, at the new postoffice building, for the purpose of raising funds for a bus commuters' shelter at the Crossroads.

'CLOVER-LEAF' PLAN

Urging united action by the Orinda Association, Orinda Chamber of Commerce and other organizations, Fleager recommended pressure on state and county authorities for building of a "clover-leaf" grade separation arrangement for the Crossroads area, instead of an overpass, which is planned by state highway officials.

The "clover-leaf," he said, would be less expensive and would have the added advantage of not by-passing the Crossroads business district. He suggested efforts be made to have funds for a "clover-leaf" included in the 1952-53 state budget, since he believed the 1951-52 budget was already pretty well planned.

HIGH SCHOOL SITE

Dr. Hall reviewed moves by the high school district for acquisition of 30 acres at the northeast corner of the Crossroads as a high school site. He told of disagreement between the high school district and the East Bay Municipal Utility District, owner of the land, over price, and the condemnation suit which has been filed by the school district.

Earle urged a "Yes" vote at next Tuesday's fire bond election and explained the community's need for additional fire-protection and fire-fighting facilities.

Bonds sounded the drive "key-note," asking Orindans to join the association and thus help development of the community. Clough, who had been scheduled to make this appeal, was detained at an Oakland city council meeting he had to attend, and arrived at the Orinda rally about 10 p.m.

Coordinating chairman for the meeting was Horace Breed.

Record Crowd at Potluck Suppers Of Mothers Club

Orinda Mothers Club potluck suppers at Orinda School had a record crowd.

It's the sort of affair Orindans love, a friendly get-together, singing, dancing and good food. Big Game spirit was high and all enjoyed the speakers.

Greg Engelhard, assistant director of athletics at U.C., spoke both Tuesday and Wednesday night. Douglas Stahle, president of the Stanford East Bay Men's Club, spoke Tuesday night, and Bud Hudson who is in charge of the football movie program of the Stanford E. B. Men's club, spoke Wednesday night.

Coffee for the Orinda supper Tuesday night was provided by a donor who wished to remain anonymous. Mrs. A. H. Horsell of the Nescafe Company donated coffee for the Glorietta supper Wednesday night.

The following mothers helped make the dinners a success: Mesdames H. S. Kimball, Fred Kronke, Marvin Bonds, J. E. Rauch, Fred Twining, James Brooks, Rudy Rasmussen and Dan Peacock, assisted by their hard working committees.

Your Garden

Want Beautiful Roses in Your Garden? Here Are Pointers Which Will Help You

By BERT WRIGHT
FOLLOWING A TALK by a prominent rose grower there was a most interesting question and answer period.

These questions and answers should be of interest to rose fanciers everywhere:

Question — What difference does it make whether the bud union is two inches below the surface or one inch above when the rose bush is planted?

Answer — In very cold climates the bud union should be two to three inches below ground level. In the west it is safe to plant with the union at or slightly below the level of the ground.

Which are good varieties of climbers?

PAUL'S SCARLET is a good old-fashioned climber; or Blaze if you are fortunate to get a plant that will be ever-blooming — which characteristic varies with each individual plant.

Some other good ones are — New Dawn, ever-blooming; Mr. Nicholas, low pillar; President Hoover, strong grower; Etiole de Hollande, lovely fragrance.

How should roses be protected for the winter?

Mound soil around the bush just before the ground freezes. After the ground freezes, put a thick layer of leaves over the mound.

What is the life expectancy of a rose bush?

NORMAL life expectancy is rather variable, though with good care many plants will live for 10 or 20 years in the northern states, usually less in the South.

In very warm climates roses are best treated as annuals.

Which is better — Fall or Spring planting — and why?

If one buys good stock, the Fall-planted roses have a better chance of getting established during the Winter.

Does very early unhill in the Spring retard or encourage growth?

IT RETARDS growth at first but when the roses do start growing they are stronger than those unhill very late. Unhill half of the soil and a week later unhill the remainder.

What are AARS roses? Can they be bought with confidence?

The Committee on All America Rose Selections tests roses for two years in various parts of the country and has them judged by competent judges.

Any AARS selection can be relied upon, although some that have been passed by have later proved equally good.

Santa Maria Unit Sponsors Dec. 3 Football Contest

All branches of the Junior Guild of Providence Hospital are looking forward to the football game between St. Mary's College and Villanova College. This game will be sponsored by the Santa Maria branch of the Guild, and will be played at Kezar Stadium on Sunday, December 3.

Proceeds received from the tickets sold by members of the branch will be given to Providence Hospital in Oakland for the children's clinic.

St. Mary's College has been very cooperative in giving the members seats within the 35-yard line at the standard price of $2.50 per ticket. Tickets are available at the business office of Providence Hospital in Oakland, the Lafayette Dime and Dollar, the Diablo Drug Store in Walnut Creek and the Crossroads Restaurant, Orinda.

Mrs. Jay M. Jacobus of 15 Mariposa Lane is the general chairman of the project. Other committee chairmen are Mrs. Charles Newman, ticket distribution; Mrs. Marshall Moran, finance; Mrs. Lucius Kentfield, publicity.

Assisting them are Mesdames J. N. Vizzard, John Healey, Jr., N. C. W. Izett, John Rarig, E. L. Macdonald, Louis Fekete, Louis Mancini, T. H. Lucas, Forrest Rhodes, F. C. Kracke, A. L. Hemmaway, Herbert Merrick, F. D. Schrupp, I. C. Bornholdt and Adolph Markstein.

Forms Group on School Libraries

Orinda Mothers Club recently formed a library committee. Chairman is Mrs. Robert Harrison.

The libraries in both schools have not been kept up because they have been used as classrooms. Now that the rooms are again available, much work needs to be done to catalog, repair and arrange the books, both new and old, so that the libraries will be usable by the children.

Thereafter a mother will be in charge every morning so that children can use the library every day for both reference and supplementary reading. Mothers interested in assisting in this work are asked to phone Mrs. Harrison, Orinda 5766.

Send Clothes to German Orphans

An orphanage in Germany serving 150 children from the ages of six months to 12 years will be the recipients of clothing collected and sent this week by Girl Scout Troop 35 of Glorietta School.

Many Orindans feel very close to this orphanage, as it is the Orinda Fire Department's Mr. Koch's sister who is the matron of the home. This project was begun several years ago by an older Girl Scout troop that has since disbanded.

The girls have also collected pajamas suitable for the children of Weimar Sanatorium. These have been turned over to Mrs. George Matey, who is in charge of the philanthropic work in our county for the tubercular children and adults at the sanatorium.

Mrs. William Tildsley, leader of the troop, announces that toy collecting for "Christmas at Weimar" is their next project.

Gompertz' Were Lunch Co-Hosts

Orindans Dr. and Mrs. Jack Gompertz were co-hosts with Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Bell at the latter's home Saturday at a buffet luncheon.

With the U.C.-U.C.L.A. game on that date and the Big Game on November 25, this and dozens of other affairs have been planned in celebration.

Open house gatherings at sororities and fraternities, house parties and many other festivities have been arranged, including those at various country clubs which have planned early buffet luncheons, with members returning after the game for dinner dancing.

Herrick Medical Staff Holds Dinner Dance

The Orinda Country Club was a gay and festive place recently as the members of the Herrick Memorial Hospital medical staff, with their wives and friends, gathered to celebrate their annual autumn dinner-dance.

Coming from Orinda were Dr. and Mrs. Wayne M. Caygill and guests; Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Johnson; Dr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Murphy; Dr. and Mrs. L. G. McKeever, and Dr. and Mrs. Paul A. Slattery.

Fire Bond Issue Stressed as Necessity For Protection of Growing Community

With the November 21 election on the proposed $130,000 bond issue for the Orinda Fire Protection District only a scant few days away, community interest in the matter is noticeably on the upgrade.

Urging a "Yes" vote, Fire Commissioner Gilbert Earle, speaking for the fire bond, stressed:

"This is your fire district."

"The district," he continued, "was created because you, the citizens here, wanted good fire protection. The past record has proven the efficiency of the department. All of us still want and need this protection."

MANY MORE
"But now there are a lot more of us to be served."

The $130,000 bond issue, if it passes, will be used for construction and equipping of two new fire houses, Earle explained.

Seventy-five thousand dollars' worth of bonds would be sold first, he pointed out, for construction of a new station on property already

Hearing Nov. 21 On Assessments For LID No. 17

Moraga Del Rey, Moraga Woodlands and Moraga Midlands property owners and residents will have opportunity to appeal the proposed assessments for Local Improvement District 17 at a public hearing Tuesday night, November 21.

The hearing, set recently by the District Board of the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District, will be at 8 p.m. in the board's office at 1822 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek.

FEW WEEKS AGO

Construction of sewers in L.I.D. 17 (Moraga Del Rey, Moraga Woodlands and Moraga Midlands areas) was completed a few weeks ago, and District Manager-Engineer John L. Mason filed with the board his certificate of completion and proposed assessment for each parcel of land affected.

The standard unit of assessment for each residential site in L.I.D. 17 has been set at $349.

MUST BALANCE

If, because of inequities, the assessment is lowered for some property owners it must be correspondingly raised for others, Mason explained, so as to make the total assessment roll balance.

Property owners have received notice that any objections to the proposed assessments must turn in written statements of the basis for their appeal before 8 p.m. November 21, when the hearing starts.

Special Church Service Thursday

Rev. John Geene, rector of the newly organized Episcopal mission in Orinda, is to be the preacher of the day on Thanksgiving at a community service at the Orinda Community Church at 10 a.m.

The Community Church choir, directed by Margaret Popovich, will participate.

The order of worship is being planned by Rev. Fred Morrow in a pattern appropriate to the cooperation of the two congregations in this observance of Christian national holiday. People of the community are invited to bring their Thanksgiving guests, and to participate as families.

Relax Mom, See Santa in Lafayette

Hey, Mom! Are your Junior and Betty Jane just dying to see Santa? And are you just dreading those Christmas crowds in the big city, traffic congestion, no place to park and all that?

Well, here's good news—Santa Claus is coming right to Lafayette. In fact, he plans to live in his Sugar Plum House, made especially for him by the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, from the time of his arrival in Lafayette on December 2 until December 23.

The Sugar Plum House will be conveniently located on the Plaza, and visiting hours for the children will be from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day, except Sundays.

The Lafayette Forum is helping Santa by providing hostesses to assist in taking care of all the little guests the Jolly Old Gentleman is expecting. On hand, too, will be Geri Fry with her trusty camera to capture the entranced look on your youngster's face as he sits on Santa's knee for a tete-a-tete on Things of Seasonal Interest.

So relax, Mom. Junior and Betty Jane shall have their visit with Santa; you may have a priceless photograph of the event; and all this with no fuss, no muss, no bother!

Over 30 at Tea Of Rotary Annes

Unofficial organizationally but very real are the "Rotary Annes" of Lafayette—the wives of members of the Lafayette Rotary Club—as was proven by their first gathering last week.

The informal "get-acquainted" tea was held at the home of Mrs. Don Blackwood on Mt. View November 9. More than 30 women were present.

Hostesses were the wives of Lafayette Rotary Club's past presidents and present officers, and included Mrs. William Ornduff, chairman, and Mesdames Matt Connelly, Dana Hamlin, Carl Westlund, Todd Nies, William McGregor and Don Blackwood.

Sale of $70,000 School Bonds Set For December 11

Sale of $70,000 of Lafayette School District bonds has been set by the County Board of Supervisors for Monday, Dec. 11, at 11 a.m.

Action of the board in setting the sale date occurred at Monday's board meeting.

The bond issue, to be spread over a 14-year period, was approved by a 11 to 1 majority of the district voters in a special election October 24.

In the same election, the voters authorized the district to accept a long-term loan of up to $900,000 from the state.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

Will you be kind enough to publish this information for those Lafayette and Orinda area residents who were disappointed by the closing November 7 of our class in Obedience Dog Training, of which I am chairman.

Because of a sudden and serious illness in my family I was unable to be present to explain the discontinuance in person, and a fellow-member of the Mt. Diablo club obliged me by making the announcement.

However, I am afraid the situation was not thoroughly understood, and I should like to prevent any loss of interest in training in the area.

The course was discontinued until spring after it was realized that the two recent postponements during the rain had altered its schedule so that it would run into late December. We have found this to be too late for an outdoor class. Ordinarily, when we do not have early rains, the fall course is over in November.

If it were possible to find an indoor training area I know the committee members would be happy to continue their instruction as a service to the public. A spring course will be announced later.

Sincerely,
KAY WAHL

Hats Off to Our Republican Women

If anyone in the community didn't vote at the recent general election, it certainly wasn't the fault of our Republican Women's Club.

If a person didn't have transportation to the polls, they only had to call the Republican Women's Club—and a car was forthcoming.

If baby and his brothers and/or sisters needed attention while mom or pop were at the polls, the club furnished a baby sitter.

So this week the SUN says hats off to this organization—for helping to make "democracy" more than a word in a Fourth of July oration.

CANASTA LUNCHEON

Mrs. N. Irvine and Mrs. L. A. Carlson were guests of Mrs. Charles Parshell at a canasta and bridge luncheon given by the Reserve Officers Association Ladies Club of San Francisco at the Presidio, recently.

Mrs. Parshell, Mrs. Irvine's daughter, is now president of the organization.

Tomorrow Night's Date for 'Caribbean'

Good home-cooked food and lively entertainment will be featured tomorrow night at Veterans Memorial Building, when "A Night on the Caribbean" will be held.

American Legion Auxiliary 517 is arranging the affair, which will begin at 6:30 with a potluck supper, followed by a Caribbean travel movie, folk dances by the Acalanes group and informal dancing.

The general public has been invited to attend the event, with a capacity crowd anticipated.

"Auxiliary suppers have been very successful in the past, and it is by popular request that the coming get-together has been arranged," announced Mrs. Harriet Kittredge, chairman of the evening.

Legion Auxiliary Holds Annual Member Drive

November has been designated as "Membership Month" by the American Legion Auxiliary, with 100 per cent renewals as its 1951 goal and many new members anticipated. Lafayette Unit 517 is extending a cordial invitation to all eligible women and girls in this area to join the group and take part in its various activities.

Eligible for membership are wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members or of deceased veterans of either World War, and women who themselves were in war service.

"We believe that at this time all women of war-service families want to serve actively for our country and its defenders," stated Mrs. Edyth DeTar, membership chairman. Application blanks may be obtained from her or from the unit treasurer, Mrs. Virginia Anderson.

Mrs. DeTar stressed that all old members should pay their 1951 dues as soon as possible, since a 50 per cent renewal quota has been set for today, when Legion posts and auxiliary units of the district will meet in Richmond.

Rotary Club Hears Speech By Anderson

William Anderson, past president of the Contra Costa Realty Board, explained procedure followed by the real estate group and its advantages to Rotarians at the Planters' Dock luncheon yesterday.

In line with the talk on "Competitor Relations" given by Sam Warwick at the dinner session last Wednesday night, local Rotary Club members each invited a guest who is a competitor in his business or profession.

Entertainment features were included in the evening program. No meeting of Lafayette Rotary is scheduled for next week because of the Thanksgiving holiday.

Flynns Plan To Show Cats

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew J. Flynn and their daughter, Sandra, are among the many Eastbay people who plan to enter pets in the Pacific Coast Championship Cat Show to be given at San Francisco's Coliseum Bowl tomorrow and Sunday. The Flynns' blueblood Persian cats have brought home many prizes from similar shows all over the state.

The show will be grand finale to National Cat Week, and is slated to be the largest ever staged west of the Mississippi. It will feature four categories embracing all-breed, silver specialty, solid color specialty and Siamese specialty.

Clyde Lindsays's Sister Succumbs

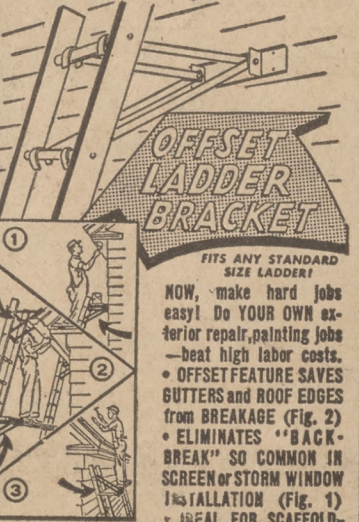

Final rites were held Monday at the Berge Mortuary Company, Niles, for Jean Marie Lindsay, who died in Newark last Friday.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde W. Lindsay, and four brothers, Clyde J. Lindsay of Lafayette, J. K. Lindsay of Diablo, Walter G. Lindsay of Tracy and Kenneth T. Lindsay of Newark. A native of Logan, Utah, she was 39 years of age.

If you love children — yours and your neighbors' — slow down when you drive home today.

What Lafayette People are Doing...

Families Move To Acalanes Area

Several new families have joined the Acalanes community in recent weeks.

In a new home on Ortega Street are Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Pearce and young son, Bobbie, who moved here from Oakland, and across from them, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde J. Lindsay and their two young sons, from Berkeley. The Lindsays are occupying the home of the Anthony Krances, who have moved to Bend, Oregon.

Newcomers to Palomares Street are the Ballingers and their two daughters, who hail from Richmond. They have purchased a home belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Don Grasso who, with daughter Judy, have said goodbye to this neighborhood in favor of a new duplex in Walnut Creek.

Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Webb have also moved into a new residence on Palomares Street.

Simpsons, Lauries Give Cocktail Parties

The William Simpsons and the Donald Lauries were among hosts who had cocktail parties at their homes preceding the Cal Club barn dance given at Diablo Country Club last Friday.

The Alumni Scholarship Fund is to benefit by the proceeds of the affair at Diablo, which included football movies as well as a full program of other events.

Dr. Henry Peters of Walnut Creek was general chairman of the evening.

Two Big Cakes Mark Freddy's Birthday Party

Freddy Nadol is now six years old. His party was held at his home November 4.

The festive table was set on the patio with a large, fancy box in the center. In the box were surprise grab bags, with popcorn balls on top.

Freddy had two large cakes, one decorated with angel candles, the other with his six birthday candles. Vari-colored jello squares were served with ice cream.

Guests included Freddy's brother Bobby Nadol, his cousins, Nancy and Pete Demos, Marshall Milburn, Michael Schneider, Vincent Diviossi, Michael Burke and Jay Byrne.

After the gifts were opened the children played "Pin the tail on the rabbit," a very perky, original rabbit of Mrs. Nadol's own design, and the magnetic dart game.

Alumni Holds Dance

Alumni of St. Joseph's School chose Canyon Inn for their recent "Beachcombers Dance" at which guests donned all types of suitable garb from sarongs, hula skirts or clam diggers to Hawaiian shirts and dungarees.

The affair, which was scheduled from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., was in charge of Chairman Bernie Lacey.

AT ANNA HEAD

Charlotte Pia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pia of Lafayette, is attending the Anna Head School in Berkeley this year.

Oriental Bazaar Dinner Details Told by WSCS

Plans for a church dinner following the Oriental Bazaar on November 30 have just been announced by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

The menu will include ham, sweet potatoes, beans, bread, salad, ice cream, cookies and coffee, all for $1.25 per person for adults and 75 cents for children.

Dinner will be served from 5 until 7 o'clock and will be limited to 200. Tickets will be on sale at the door.

Mrs. N. Brekke of Lafayette is chairman.

Following the dinner, entertainment by Mrs. Edwin C. Floyd and her committee will be presented.

Allen Stewart Is Eagle Scout

Allen Stewart of Lafayette became an Eagle Scout at an Eagle Court of Honor held Wednesday night at St. John's Presbyterian Church in Berkeley.

Allen is a member of Troop 7, the oldest scout troop in Berkeley, and the dinner which preceded the Eagle Court also commemorated the 35th anniversary of the troop's founding.

Allen is the youngest son of the F. W. Stewarts and the third to receive this high honor.

Scout Show Set For Nov. 24th

Triple-strength entertainment will be offered by Orinda Boy Scouts next Friday night, 8 p.m., at Orinda Grammar School auditorium.

Members of Troops 207 and 200 and Explorer Post 300 will put on a show which they vow will be "tops."

FOR SCOUT HUT

Proceeds will be used for improvements to the Scout Hut at Orinda Park Pool, which is used by all three groups.

In the past each group has conducted its own annual fund-raising venture, but this year the three got together for one big show.

The program will include a summer camping skit by Explorer Post 300, a skit, "Early Orinda," and instrumental music by Troop 207 and a magic act and quartet-singing by Troop 200.

PRIZES

In addition to enjoying the entertainment, members of the audience will have the opportunity to win prizes offered by Orinda and Lafayette merchants.

First prize will be a four-day stay for a couple at the Desert Retreat Hotel at Palm Springs, a favorite vacation spot among people of this area. The place consists of individual bungalows in beautiful garden surroundings three blocks from the center of Palm Springs. Arrangements for this prize were made by Worden's Travel Agency.

Stan Hunn is scoutmaster of Troop 207; Dan Sheldon is scoutmaster of Troop 200, of which Harry Noller is assistant scoutmaster, and Dr. Ralph Hall is leader of Explorer Post 300.

May the Best Team Win!

The cooler atmosphere in Orinda for the past week has probably been engendered by approach of Big Game Day.

Every time we mentioned Indian summer, Cal alumni temperatures rose. If we spoke of "typical California fall weather," one-time farm habitues turned blue and gold—we mean, cold. Mr. Weatherman, we just can't win—we're fit to be tied.

This week we'll straddle the "political weather fence." No talk of the beautiful red sunrises, or the blue mid morning skies and golden sunsets. No allusion to the white frost, or red noses.

Nope! Just a good sensible weather report for the week from November 8th through November 14th. The maximum was recorded on the 8th, 79 degrees. Low spot was the 35 degrees of November 11. There was 28 inches of rain during this same week.

May the best team win!

Lions to Help Kids Get Toys

Orinda Lions board of directors met Wednesday night at the home of President Don Hunter to discuss the service club's pending programs.

The board gave endorsement to the project of collecting used toys for needy youngsters, with Lions Club members cooperating in this undertaking. The toys may be left at Black's Market, Bradley's Market or the Orinda Store, where a Kilpatrick bread truck will pick them up to be taken to a storage depot for later distribution.

The annual turkey shoot will highlight Orinda Lions' meeting next Wednesday night, 7:15, at Orinda Willows. Members will compete to win live turkeys at this fund-raising event.

The service club has planned to give its annual Christmas Party on December 18. Lion Dr. Wirt Eller has been named chairman of planning for the affair.

D.A.R. Chapter Luncheon Meeting Held in Orinda

Campanile Chapter, D.A.R., members had needs of the approved schools supported by Daughters of the American Revolution explained to them at a luncheon meeting held Tuesday at the Los Conejos home of Mrs. Clarence G. Smith.

Speaker was Mrs. Charles Haskell Danforth, past state regent and recently elected reporter general of the national organization.

Mrs. Ray Westphal, chairman of approved schools, was co-hostess with Mrs. Smith.

Mrs. W. Paul, past regent, reported on Red Cross activities of the chapter and the Americanism chairman, Mrs. Walter B. Knox, told of the program with the foreign born, naturalization and new voters.

Members attending brought clothing to be distributed in the Kate Duncan Smith D.A.R. School in Grant, Alabama, and also made contributions to buy Christmas toys for children at Crossmore School, North Carolina.

Altar Society Food Sale Set For Tomorrow

Kitchen engineering is at a new high this week, with the ladies of the Santa Maria Altar Society planning for a food sale to be held at Frank's Orinda Hardware store tomorrow from 9 a.m. to 12.

There will be all kinds of goodies, ranging from pizzas, enchiladas and pickles to cakes, pies and cookies, with particular emphasis on holiday fruit cakes and plum puddings.

These last items will be of great appeal to those who are planning home festivities for Thanksgiving.

Heading the hard-working committee is Mrs. Robert Boyle. She is assisted by Mesdames Joseph Orland, Leighton MacGregor, Lloyd O'Connell, V. F. Baumhefner, J. D. Strong, E. J. Barrett, Albert Bold, George Klement, Charles Malone, John Boyne, C. E. Cook, J. Allara and John Stoffel.

The proceeds from this sale will augment the church building fund.

George Huldums Are Back from Week's Trip

Mr. and Mrs. George Huldum spent the week of October 29 to November 5 at the Hotel del Coronado. They also visited Mexico.

In Fall Setting, Community Church Silver Tea, Bazaar a Big Success

The Silver Tea and Bazaar held at the Orinda Community Church November 9 was a success socially and financially. An atmosphere of cordiality and friendship pervaded as coffee, tea and delicious homemade cake were served to all as they entered.

The tea table, beautifully decorated with an arrangement of fall flowers, fruits and autumn leaves by Mrs. Andy Blalock, was presided over by Mrs. Ida Zamloch, Mrs.

Albert Meyer, Mrs. E. H. Russ and Mrs. William Mordy in turn.

Helping to maintain the smoothness of the serving was the kitchen committee of Mesdames Ralph Wilson, E. T. Meakin, William Penn Mott, W. W. Swedberg and Madge Barnes.

The large array of articles for sale testified to the cleverness and industry of the evening sections, the Gift Makers and the Hand Crafters during the past year, as well as the cooperation of the other three sections.

No bazaar had ever been attended by so many children, yet many of the adults did not realize this as the little folks couldn't be lured away from their room, where their Children's Fair with puppet shows, games, goodies, toys and "white elephants" kept them enthralled.

Rites Held for Orindan's Sister

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the Albert Brown Mortuary in Oakland for Florence E. Atkinson, who died in Berkeley November 11.

She was a sister of Herbert P. Atkinson of Orinda and Mrs. H. C. Scrutton of Sacramento. She was a native of England.

Guild Sections Plan Card Party

Evening sections of the Women's Guild, 3 and 4, will have a joint card party Tuesday evening, November 28, at the home of Mrs. U. B. Smith, 26 Via Hermosa.

Co-hostess will be Mrs. W. S. Dean. It is hoped there will be a large attendance at this last affair the sections will have this year. Reservations may be phoned to Mrs. M. R. Williams, Orinda 7681.

The Robert Williams' Back From Mexico City

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Williams of Katrina Court have just returned from a two-week trip to Mexico City. On their itinerary also were Acapulco, Manzanatlan and Tazco.

Drive carefully—the life you save may be your own.

Branch of Therapy Center's New Orinda Chapter Hears Report, Elects Officers

The Orinda Chapter of Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center, afternoon section, met at noon Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. J. B. Wasson.

After introductions and a social half-hour, the 35 women present were served a delicious frozen dessert and coffee.

The organization meeting which followed was presided over by Mrs. Ida Zamloch, assisted by Mrs. Frank Hight, the two most responsible in arousing the interest of Orinda women in this project, which has grown to very enthusiastic proportions. The constitution was read and the roster for charter members declared closed after that day.

NEED FOR VOLUNTEERS

Mrs. William J. Gilman told of the need of the center for volunteer help, preferably by those with nursing experience, in helping patients with their exercises, for others to help with office work and for still others to help with the transportation of patients to or from the center. All members understood they were to help in money-raising projects for the benefit of the Therapy Center.

First officers elected at this meeting were: President, Mrs. Carl Smith; vice-president, Mrs. William Arends; secretary, Mrs. Ed Nelson; social secretary, Mrs. Paul Demter; treasurer, Mrs. Frank Hight; publicity, Mrs. G. Chester Brown and Mrs. Murray Groves; ways and means chairman, Mrs. Franklin Silva; membership chairman, Mrs. Albert Schmidt.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS

Appointed as committee members of ways and means were Mesdames Dan Lucas, Herbert Wise and Roger Dexter. On the membership committee were appointed Mesdames Marvin Bonds, Ray Johnston and A. V. Scollard.

The Orinda Chapter of Mt. Diablo Child Therapy Center feels it has inaugurated a home philanthropy much needed and one to extend its influence throughout the coming years.

Nicklas Going East

Walt Nicklas plans to leave for the east next Friday to visit the manufacturers he represents here. He will make the trip by Vista Dome.
